SAYLORS JOINS FIRST UNITED SECURITY BANK

THOMASVILLE, AL – David Saylor has recently joined First United Security Bank as Senior Vice President/Director of Human Resources. David most recently served at a regional bank in the Tuscaloosa area.

“We are very pleased to have someone with David’s experience to join our team. One of our primary goals is to attract and retain qualified and professional staff in order to meet our customers’ needs. With David’s wealth of knowledge in the field of Human Resources, we will continue to meet that goal,” said James House, CEO/President.

“I am excited about my appointment to First United Security’s Management Team. It is a privilege to work for such a great financial institution,” said Saylor.

Saylor is a graduate of the University of New York and received his Masters in Business Administration from Troy State University. He and his wife of 3 years, Jenifer, have two adult children, Christian and Kevin. They reside in Selma, where they are active members of Church Street United Methodist Church. He has served in the Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa, and his hobbies include golf and flying aircraft.

Established in 1952, First United Security Bank serves its customers through its 19 offices in Brent, Butler, Calera, Centreville, Coffeetown, Columbiana, Fulton, Gilbertown, Grove Hill, Harpersville, Jackson, McCalla, Thomasville, Tuscaloosa and Woodstock. The Bank holds more than $603 million in assets, is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and is an Equal Housing Lender.
