DAY JOINS FIRST UNITED SECURITY BANK

THOMASVILLE, AL – Janice N. Day has recently joined First United Security Bank as AVP/Branch Manager of the College Avenue Office in Jackson. Janice joins the bank with over 37 years of banking experience, most recently serving as an Administrative Officer at a local community bank.

“We are pleased to have Janice join our staff and with her extensive background in banking she will be an asset to FUSB and our customers,” said Jim Sheffield, Senior Vice President & Regional Manager, Southern Region.

“I am especially excited to join the First United Security team, and look forward to developing long-term relationships with our customers and continuing to strengthen community partnerships. The strong focus on trust, principles and high-level service known throughout the organization is well aligned with my own values and exemplifies the contribution I am committed to make to the First United team, our valued customers and to the Jackson community,” said Day.

Day is a graduate of Faulkner University (1996), where she received her B.A. in Business Administration, graduating Summa Cum Laude. She is also a graduate of the Alabama Bankers’ Banking School at the University of South Alabama (1996) and a graduate of the Alabama Bankers’ Trust School at the University of South Alabama (1999).
