MOONEY JOINS FIRST UNITED SECURITY BANK

THOMASVILLE, AL – Meredith Mooney has recently joined First United Security Bank as Branch Manager of the bank’s Columbiana Office. Meredith joins the bank having recently worked at another financial institution as a retail banker.

“We are very pleased to announce Meredith Mooney as the new Branch Manager of our Columbiana Office,” said Lisa Berry, VP, Regional Manager, Northern Region. “Meredith has over 10 years of experience in the banking industry. Her experience and knowledge make her a key addition to our bank. We are looking forward to her becoming involved within the Columbiana Community and developing strong banking relationships with the members of the community. Please join me in welcoming Meredith to our FUSB Family!”

“It is an honor to join the First United Security Bank team as Manager of our Columbiana Office,” said Mooney. “I look forward to developing lasting relationships with existing and new customers while serving the financial needs of my home town. 1stUSBank’s focus on integrity, delivering a high standard of excellence to our communities, and exceeding expectations aligns with my own values of providing the best possible customer service to our valued customers, Meredith said.

Mooney has a B.A. in Economics and Political Science from the University of Alabama (2004) and a Juris Doctorate from Birmingham School of Law (2007). Meredith is an active member of Old Chapel United Methodist church and enjoys college football, especially Alabama football, traveling, reading, and participating in YMCA activities.
