RECENT PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED AT FIRST UNITED SECURITY BANK

THOMASVILLE, AL – First United Security Bank Board of Directors recently announced officer promotions. Three individuals received promotions within their existing branches and areas of responsibility. Including: Mischelle Grogan to Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager of the Harpersville Office; Rosie Moore to Assistant Vice President and Office Manager of the Main Office in Thomasville; and Sandy Young to Personal Banker of the Centreville Office. Also promoted were Dan McArthur to Vice President and Manager of Special Assets at the Calera Office.

Combined, these professionals have over 70 years of banking experience. Among other accomplishments, some have earned degrees in their fields and at state banking schools. Each of them, in many ways, is involved in the communities where they reside.

"Ms. Grogan, Ms. Moore and Ms. Young have been long-time valuable employees of FUSB. I am proud of their accomplishments and they have worked hard for these promotions", said Eric Mabowitz, EVP, Retail Division, Branch Administration.

"We are extremely pleased to have Dan as part of our team. Dan is a high caliber individual who brings a wealth of specialized banking experience and knowledge in all facets of his job. He is a true leader in every respect with a strong work ethic and we already have received great results through his contribution to our bank. Congratulation Dan on your well deserved promotion", said Craig Nelson, EVP, Chief Credit Officer.
