FIRST UNITED SECURITY BANK NAMES REAL ESTATE SPECIALISTS

THOMASVILLE, AL – Georgia Dozier and Melissa Bryan have recently been named Real Estate Specialists for First United Security Bank. With the implementation of the bank’s new long-term mortgage product, FUSB felt this was a necessary step toward streamlining the loan process.

“Georgia’s vast experience working with the public and her attention to detail are just two of the many assets she has and that the bank wants from our mortgage specialist,” Eric Mabowitz, EVP Retail Division said. “All these attributes will enhance our customer’s experience when receiving a real estate loan from FUSB.”

“I do enjoy working with our customers and sharing in the excitement of helping to make their dreams come true”, said Georgia.

Georgia has been with the bank since 1999 having previously served as the Branch Manager of its Butler Office. She has a financial services career spanning 36 years and is currently Vice President/Real Estate Specialist for the bank’s Southern Region. She is a lifelong resident of Choctaw County and a graduate of Southern Choctaw High School. Georgia and her husband, Paul, have two children and seven grandchildren. She is very active in her community, having served on the board of the Choctaw County Chamber, Butler Lions Club, Leadership Choctaw, Choctaw County Health Council, and the Ballet and Theatre Arts Performing Company. She is also a member of The American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life, Heritage Festival and serves as Music Director at Isney Baptist Church.

Melissa Bryan is the Real Estate Specialist for FUSB's Northern Region and has just recently been hired to fill that position having come to the bank with several years of real estate documentation experience.

"We would like to welcome Melissa Bryan to our bank. Melissa's strong background in real estate loan documentation makes her a great addition to our staff in our northern region", said Lisa Berry, VP/Regional Manager of the Northern Region. "We look forward to her continued growth with our FUSB Team!"

"I am excited to become a part of the First United Security Bank Team and its continued growth", said Melissa.

Melissa attended Jefferson State Community College and has received a certificate from Realty South Real Estate School in 2007. She has two children, Tristan (9 yrs) and Nicole (2 ½ yrs) and is a member of Church of the Highlands at Riverchase. In her spare time she enjoys photography and loves to be in the water, whether it's the pool or the ocean.
